Monrovia, California

Dear Dae:

Sorry you are ill.

I'll bite when will I see you. I suppose not tomorrow night of course, though I think I can get the car. Sunday?

If you can see me Sunday could you call me (if the family don't object) — if I am not there leave the message.

Jim wants the car sometime Sunday, but I think anytime you say will be O.K. If you can see me.

When else? That's up to you. If you know of any time when you can, call or write.

Hope you will be better soon.

I do want to see you.

Goodnight
